HOME-COMING.

Successful Three-Days' Gathering at Shelby.

(Special To The Times-Dispatch.)
RALPHIGH, N. C., August 18.—Thursday was farmers' day of home-coming week at Shelby. Addresses were delivered by Colonel Jno. S. Cunningham and Hon. W. C. Heath. The Shelby military company escorted Governor Glenn from the station. The company engaged in a sham battle on the courthouse square. An informal public reception was held at Governor Glenn's at night in honor of Governor Glenn. Captain L. J. Hoyle introduced the speaker, Governor Glenn, who delighted the audience with a brilliant, thrilling and eloquent address, and made a touching appeal to the old soldiers to be ready to answer to the final roll call, as they had ever bravely answered in the Civil War. Governor Glenn paid a glowing tribute to the Confederate soldiers, dead and living, of the Shenandoah Valley. The home-coming week was a dress parade by the Shelby military company. A tremendous crowd was present on all three days, and the exercises were interesting throughout.

Mr. Rives, though very young, is well known as a speaker throughout Tidewater, and is a great favorite in this section. The meeting promises to be well attended and very interesting.

Must Get a Permit Now.

The Next Target Practice.
The next target practice by the policemen of the city will be on the 23rd and 24th of this month. When the prize is won by a district it will be kept for a month and then if the other district wins it will be transferred.

Keane, treasurer, showing a cash receipt since the organization, August 15, 1900, to present date, of $1,055.22, after which Mr. Jack Burrows, of Richmond, gave a very amusing and highly entertaining address, which was well received; address by Mr. R. T. Patman, in that gentleman's usual happy vein, recitation entitled "The Bar-room and the Drunkard," by Miss Ella A. Jordan; address by the president, Mrs. J. M. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Talley, Mrs. Lizzie Wakefield, Mrs. Alex. Moore, Mrs. Susie Neal, Mrs. T. J. Talbot, Mrs. Josie Madra, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hubbard and Mrs. T. A. Bass.

The home at No. 310 East Sixth Street, which was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Shepard K. Smith at the time of the death of their little son, Ralph Smith, will be vacated by decision of Ernest H. Wells, counsel for Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

The house, which belongs to George Beams, has been in charge of John Crostie since the arrest of the Smiths on April 21st. The furnishings, which belong to a Richmond installment firm, will be returned.

Whatever the outcome of the appeal in the case of Mr. Smith and the trial of Smith might be, it is highly improbable that either of them would care to live in Manchester again.

Mr. Allan Talbot, a well known Richmond man, just appointed deputy collector of internal revenue by the retiring collector, Captain Anna Rogers, yesterday entered upon the duties of the position. This is no new work to Mr. Talbot, who served the six years from 1893 to 1899 in the revenue service with efficiency and ability. He was first appointed a deputy under the Democratic collector, Mr. William Ryan, in 1893, and was in that position when the change of administration came, and Mr. Ryan was succeeded by the late Colonel D. Brady. Owing to Mr. Talbot's experience and ability, he was retained in the office by Colonel Brady until he voluntarily retired therefrom in September 1899, after just six years' service.

It is understood that his recent reappointment to the service was made by Collector Rogers, solely on the ground of efficiency and competency. When a vacancy recently occurred Mr. Talbot was promptly selected for the place. Mr. Talbot was given a letter in the nature of an endorsement by Colonel Brady when the deputy retired six years ago. This letter is said to be a very high recommendation of the man for the position.

Mr. Talbot was appointed to fill a vacancy recently created by removal. There were many other applications, but this one was easily the strongest claim on the basis of merit, and the selection was accordingly made.

The Anxious Life.
The situation in the offices of the revenue service here is one of uncertainty and anxiety just now. In fact for twelve months the lives of the employees of the revenue service have been miserable by the constant rumors of shake-ups and upheavals, and no man knew then or knows now what will be the final outcome of the rumors and changes.

Collector Rogers is still holding the position until he is relieved by the new appointee, Hon. M. K. Lowry, of Stafford. Mr. Lowry is hardly known personally to the employees, and they are consequently wholly in the dark as to what changes he may seek to make.

There was a meeting last night of the board of directors of the Manchester Building, Loan and Trust Company.

Mr. Patterson Can't Serve.
Hon. S. S. P. Patterson, who was on Thursday night appointed one of the judges for Second Monroe in the primary next Tuesday, will not be able to serve, as he will leave on an afternoon train Tuesday for the station where the American Bar Association. The ward superintendent will name some one to act in Mr. Patterson's stead.

Three More Want to Be Public Printers

Mr. W. T. Booth, Mr. Bottom and Mr. Moale Added to the List.

The list of applicants for the position of Superintendent of Public Printing continues to grow. Mr. Walter T. Booth, who is one of the most well-known members of the craft in Richmond, was just announced his candidacy. Mr. Booth has been prominently connected with Richmond Typographical Union No. 90 for a number of years, has served as its president and has an excellent reputation for conservative ability, both with the union and the employing printers. He is thoroughly well-posted on all the branches of the printing business, having been connected with several book and newspaper concerns, which was occupied in the mechanical and editorial departments. Having been a member of the Legislature, and conversant with the needs of both sides of the public printing work, Mr. Booth is considered by his friends peculiarly well fitted for the position. It is at present with the Walthall Printing Co.

The friends of Councilman Davis Bottom, of Clay Ward, have started a boom for him as successor to the late Captain J. H. O'Bannon, Superintendent of Public Printing, and they will present his name to Governor Montague and press it vigorously for the place. Mr. Bottom is at present a traveling salesman, and is a practical printer, having occupied the Waddy Company and other well known Richmond firms.

He has been a member of the lower branch of the Council for the several terms, and is a leader in that body. He is also a member of the very important Committee on Charter, Ordinances and Reform.

Mr. Bottom is popular in Clay Ward, where he has repeatedly been elected a Council over strong opposition. He is a gentleman of the highest type.

Mr. Bottom, it is understood, will file his application in a few days.

Mr. W. Travers Moale, a well-known printer, in the employ of Messrs. Ware and Duke is also a candidate for Superintendent of Public Printing, to succeed the late Captain J. H. O'Bannon.

Mr. Moale was for fourteen years connected with the old Dispatch and is a brother-in-law of the late Colonel C. O. B. Cowardin. He is a practical printer of long experience.

The home place proper brought $12,000, and the adjoining farm $4,500. The sale was the result of a suit to settle up Colonel Wilcox's estate, and Judge George L. Christian and Mr. John H. Lamb, of this city, and Judge T. H. Wilcox, of Norfolk, were the counsel representing various parties.

PICNIC IN OAK GROVE.
Dancing and Light Refreshments. Will be Enjoyable Features.

All who attend the annual grand German picnic, under the auspices of St. Mary's Catholic Church, to be held next Wednesday in Oak Grove, near the Horse Show Building, will doubtless have a good time. The restaurant will be managed by Mesdames August Stromeyer and G. H. Plagemann and their assistants.

The ice cream saloon and other light refreshments will be in charge of the young ladies of the society, and an entirely new set of games and amusements will be in charge of the young men. Dancing will be a feature of the entertainment.

"The Young Man in Politics."
Abroad with the needs of the nation, the theme of the young men's meeting, the County Y. M. C. Sunday afternoon will be "The Young Man in Politics." This was planned before the present-day unpopularity in local affairs, which gives splendid opportunity for the speaker.

That young men of character are needed in the political field cannot be doubted—men of thought and independence of action. The speakers will begin at 3:30 o'clock and the men are most cordially invited to be present.

Primary Election Returns.
A special committee of the Associate Board of Directors, consisting of D. G. Wilson, Charles G. Taylor, Jr., Ben Brockenbrough, A. J. Webster, and W. L. Wingfield, has planned an open house for Tuesday night. There will be music and other guests of interest for members and their families, both ladies and gentlemen. A special Western Union wire will be run into the building, and the returns from all over Virginia will be given at 8 o'clock. The evening will begin at 8:30 as fast as received from the five hundred offices throughout the State. Every member is invited to turn out and bring his friends. Come and go as you please.

Market is Brighter.
There were a few fancy apples on the Cary Street Market yesterday, selling from $2 to $2.50; common cooking apples are selling at from $1 to $1.50. Chickens are rated at from 14 cents to 15 cents a pound. Eggs are going up now, selling at $1.50 a barrel. Veals are somewhat scarce, selling at 6 to 7 cents.

Teachers to Meet.
At the annual meeting, September 15th, for the County School Board, the teachers of the public schools of the city, their addresses will be delivered on school work, management, discipline, ventilation and other matters.

Superintendent Fox will then, as usual, publish the assignments for the year.

TWIN CITY GAMES.
Lively Tussle This Afternoon Involving All Four Teams.

The Twin City teams met this afternoon for a grand tussle. Richmond tackles the Brownies for the first try out, and the Highlanders will go against the Munches-terians afterwards. The two games will be witnessed by hundreds of people if there is good weather, for the rivalry between the nine at this time is intense, and the winning or losing of two or three games may change the standing of the clubs.

The Brownies so far have a good lead, and claim that they will be able to hold the first rung on the ladder. But the Highlanders are climbing up and are firmly convinced that they will be within reaching distance before many more games have been played.

Manchester has hopes of reaching the first rung also, and the Richmond aggregation will try to take a full out of the leaders so that there will be a great contest in the percentage column. The first game is for 2:35 o'clock, and the second one will begin at fifteen minutes to five.

NEW CHARTERS ISSUED.
